

Judicial Selection in the States

Appellate and General Jurisdiction Courts

“Initial Selection: Courts of Last Resort”

Merit Selection (24)	Partisan Election (9)	Non-Partisan Election (13)	Gubernatorial Appointment (3)	Legislative Appointment (2)
Alaska	Alabama	Arkansas	California	South Carolina
Arizona	Illinois	Georgia	Maine	Virginia
Colorado	Louisiana	Idaho	New Jersey
Connecticut	Michigan <sup>1</sup>	Kentucky
Delaware <sup>2</sup>	New Mexico	Minnesota
District of Columbia	Ohio <sup>3</sup>	Mississippi
Florida	Pennsylvania	Montana
Hawaii	Texas	Nevada
Indiana	West Virginia	North Carolina
Iowa		North Dakota
Kansas		Oregon
Maryland <sup>2</sup>		Washington
Massachusetts <sup>2</sup>		Wisconsin
Missouri
Nebraska
New Hampshire <sup>2</sup>
New York
Oklahoma
Rhode Island
South Dakota
Tennessee
Utah
Vermont
Wyoming

1. Candidates appear on the general election ballot without party affiliation but may be nominated at political party conventions.

2. Merit selection is established by executive order.

3. Candidates appear on the general election ballot without party affiliation but are nominated in partisan primary elections.